COUNCIL TURNS ATTENTION TO DISTRESS CASES

The regular meeting of the town council was held on Monday night, with Mayor Farmer, Councillors Morgan, McVey, Ferguson, Sartoris and Hamilton, and Secretary Kelly present.

The minutes of previous regular meeting were approved as read and a number of accounts were passed for payment if O.K'd by committees. An account from E. J. Pozzi for "extras" in connection with his contract for the construction of a bridge over Lyon Creek, connecting Dearborn and Main Streets, was turned down, one councillor claiming that the Blairmore council was not responsible for the high water which destroyed some of Mr. Pozzi's work, resulting in this bill.

A deputation from the local union waited upon the council, asking that some attention be given certain cases of destitution within the town. Several needy cases were cited and the council promised to see that they were all cared for.

A resolution was also unanimously endorsed by the council, urging upon the Dominion Pensions Board the necessity of a pension being awarded a local veteran of the Great War, who was at present unable to work through illness and advancing years. This man has been suffering since the war from injuries sustained in the trenches.

Mr. Tony Rota, a resident of East Blairmore, complained to the council that he and his family were continually being annoyed by parties making his house for one of ill-repute. This matter will be looked into.

A by-law was passed appointing Mr. A. J. Kelly returning officer for the forthcoming municipal elections.

I.O.D.E. MEETING

A meeting of the I.O.D.E. will be held at the Greenhill Hotel on Tuesday next, January the 15th, at 7.30 p.m.

The principal items of business will be reports for the past year and the nomination of officers for 1929.

All members are urged to be present.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, holds a record for subscribers renewing voluntarily and continuously year after year. After all it is not surprising when one considers the quantity and quality these readers are given each week and at a price ridiculously low—$1 a year or three years for $2.

Asplendid exhibition of hockey was displayed in the league game between Hillcrest and Bellevue at the Bellevue arena last night, in which Hillcrest again emerged winners by 3 to 2. About four hundred fans witnessed the game, which was clean and snappy all through. "Doc" Barbour refereed.

At a recent meeting held at Hillcrest, the officers of Summit Lodge, Coleman; Rocky Mountain Lodge, Blairmore; and Sentinel Lodge, Hillcrest, A. F. & A. M., were installed by W. Bro. Creighton of Hillcrest. The following were installed as worshipful masters of the respective lodges: W. L. Rippon, S. G. Bannan and E. C. Cosstick.

Miss Janet Cameron, of Burnis, who was to have returned to her school at Rochester, Alberta, last week end, is still at home, having received a last-minute word that her school was closed on account of measles epidemic.

At the conclusion of the meeting, a dainty supper was served and dancing brought a pleasant evening to a close.

On Tuesday evening a number of the Rebekahs accompanied Sister Fraser to Pincher Creek, where installation of officers took place. An enjoyable time was reported by all.

Several carloads of Rebekahs journeyed to Bellevue on Wednesday evening to be present at the Lodge when Sister Fraser, D.D.P., and staff, installed the officers of Ray of Hope Rebekah Lodge in the following order: O. Johnson, N.G.; M. Hallworth, V.G.; A. Beal, R.S.; A. Emmerson, F.S.; A. Boguish, Treas.; M. McEachern, Warden; M. Cousins, Com.; E. Prescott, Chaplain; M. Milnes, R.S.N.G.; E. Padgett, L.S.N.G.; L. OFFICERS MIZPAH TEMPLE PYTHIAN SISTERS INSTALLED

At a meeting of Mizpah Temple No. 9, Pythian Sisters, held in the Castle Hall at Hillcrest on the night of Tuesday, January the 8th, the following officers were installed by Mrs. J. C. Atkinson as district deputy: E. Haggerly, P.C.; A. Mansell, M.E.C.; E. Stutchbury, E.S.; C. Casagrande, E.J.; I. Taylor, M. of T.; L. Rose, M.R.C.; M. Miller, M. of F.; R. Makin, P. of T.; C. Mizpah Temple will hold a sale of home cooking and afternoon tea on St. Valentine's Day, February the 14th. Come along and bring a friend.

BLAIRMORE CINCHES FIRST SECTION OF SCHEDULE

One of the best hockey games witnessed this season was played on Coleman ice on Tuesday night between the Coleman Canadians and the Blairmore Bearcats. Despite the fact that both teams were weakened by having members on the sick list, a splendid game was staged and the result pretty well describes the strength of the teams. In the opening period, Blairmore scored in about one minute and shortly afterwards Coleman tallied, who again found the net towards the close of that period. Blairmore scored the only goal in the second, and again in the third, leaving the final three-to-two. "Doc" Barbour refereed and had the game well in hand throughout. Coleman fans turned out well and the gate was larger than any of last season's.

Blairmore has played five games of the first section, losing none, while Coleman has played six and lost two. Blairmore is thus winner of the first section of the season's schedule, which closes with tomorrow night's game on the local arena with Bellevue.

It is time that the old interest in hockey should be revived and it is sincerely hoped that on tomorrow night and throughout the balance of the season a better attendance at games will be noticeable.

COWLEY SCHOOL "LIT" HOLD PLEASING CONCERT

On Friday night last, the Literary Society of the Cowley school gave a very pleasing concert following a regular business meeting. The program in part was as follows: Recitation by Barbara Bundy, song by the Junior Girls, recitation by Billy Benson, "Christmas Dolls" by the Junior Girls, recitation by Mrs. Edwards, popular songs by Ketha Fustian and Verdon Leigh, recitation by Ketha Fustian, a sketch by four high school girls and recitation by Clare Bundy. Other pleasing items were given voluntarily. Candies and nuts were served to the children, after which many lively games were played.

MAKE FERTILIZER FOR EXPERIMENTS

Frank B. Fair, mining engineer for the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, is at Crow's Nest with a crew of twelve men, taking out another 500 tons of phosphate ore. This is being shipped to Trail to be made into super-phosphate by combining with sulphuric acid from the smelter. This fertilizer will be used for further experiments on the prairie in connection with the crops net spring.

Concludes Greatest Year

Production in B.C. Industries Breaks Quarter Billion Mark

The year 1928 was by far the greatest in the history of British Columbia. The production of the province's four great industries, lumbering, agriculture, mining and fishing, for the first time broke the quarter billion mark.

A conservative estimate, based on preliminary returns so far available to the government, would place the output at $291,208,000, an increase of $8,977,333 over the total for 1927, but final returns, especially from the lumber industry, may easily boost this a million or more.

Plans Being Made At Coast For A Monument To Capt. Vancouver

Plans are being laid to raise money in Vancouver for the erection of a statue in honor of the famous captain who gave his name to what is now the biggest sea port or the American Pacific coast. Says the Vancouver Province, "We cannot emulate the imposing scheme of the Statue of Liberty. We can not hope to spend a million dollars on our Captain Vancouver as the United States devoted them spent on their 315-foot high lady of the torch. But our Captain Vancouver should stand a memorial and a symbol, guarding our local habitation and our name, rising out of our sea, to be a witness for us that we honor him and them that laid our foundations. It should stand somewhere at the entrance of the harbor, in a high place, looking down upon the ships as they pass, a landmark for the mariner by day, and a beacon light by night, visible far out in the Gulf."

Mexican Reporters Wear Pistols

It is as commonplace in a Mexican newspaper office for a reporter when he sits down to his desk, to take off his pistol and cartridge belt as it is in the United States for a news hound to remove his gun when he starts to write. Almost every reporter here carries a pistol, as do most men whose work requires them to be abroad at night, as well as a great many who have not that excuse for their armament.

Requesting Plant

New Fuel To Shortly Appear On the Saskatchewan Market

After more than nine years, during which more than a million dollars was spent in plant equipment and experimentation, a new fuel is shortly to appear on Saskatchewan markets.

It was March 20, 1918, that the order-in-council was passed which gave the required authority in the setting up of the Lignite Utilization Board of Canada. That body worked for years in an effort to produce a briquette from the vast store of lignite in southern Saskatchewan, concentrating on a vast plant at Bismarck.

The original vote was for $400,000, the federal government supplying half and the Saskatchewan and Manitoba governments supplying one-quarter each. After that fund was exhausted Manitoba dropped out and Saskatchewan and the federal government carried on. The grand total by governments, many thousands of which went into experimental equipment that had to be discarded, was $1,036,000.

When it appeared that the whole scheme was to prove a failure and governments hesitated over putting up more money. British capital became interested and the money men agreed to spend another large sum in experimental work at the plant, and, if successfully, to take over the plant for one dollar. Ernest Bury, generally considered the ranking industrial chemist in the British Empire, was placed in charge, and, according to latest advice, has produced a type of briquette that is considered successful in every way.

Frontier Guards in Poland Arrest Starving Peasants Seeking Food

Reports from the northern part of the Polish Russian frontier state that Polish frontier guards have been seizing Russian peasants who seek to penetrate Polish territory to get food and fairs in Poland.

The peasants are quoted as begging the Polish guards to permit them to obtain food in Poland in view of scarcity in Russia, adding that they have great trouble in obtaining permission to cross the frontier inasmuch as the soviet authorities feel that the peasants discredit the government by seeking food in a neighboring country.

For hours Donald followed the expert through the mill, while the latter explained and tested the different motors.

Once a week Robert Rennie came to the mill, taking a keen interest in all phases of its construction, and invariably he went away with a pleased smile on his face.

"Never saw the old man so worked up," commented Gillis. "Guess he's like to come up here and run himself."

Rennick was still skeptical. For no apparent reason he had taken a dislike to Donald. "It's just 'cause you and I are such good friends," explained Gillis. "Me and him get on like a couple of straggled bulls."

When the huge three-storied mill, with its dry kiln, lumber sheds, conveyor shed and railroad spur, was ready for operation, and each machine had been tested, Robert Rennie arrived with other officials of the company. Next morning Donald's heart thumped as the mill's big white tent out its first call to work and the men filed eagerly to their posts.

The logs were sprayed with huge water-jets as they came up the chain-haul to clear them of gravel and debris. The electric "augers" spun them about and threw them in to place with a thud that shook the mill. Then in a wild crescendo of sound there rose the harsh chorus of saws, the singing howl of the cutters, the strident, slurring sound of the gang-saws, and the staccato snarl of the trimmer.

Smiling and rubbing his hands, Robert Rennie walked through the mill. "Running like a greased pig," he shouted Gillis above the clamour. The owner of the R. C. & L. Co. so far forgot his decorum as to slap the astonished Gillis heartily on the back.

Donald noticed an ever-increasing irritability on the part of the logging foreman during the next week. The erstwhile jocular Gillis became sulky and morose. Donald got an inkling as to the cause of his friend's gloom when he heard Gillis in conversation with Andy.

"What the hell's the matter, you big junkies? You're like a bear with a sore foot," complained Andy.

"If my gang don't get here pretty soon, and I have to put up with this crowd of bouncies much longer, I won't be fit to live with," growled Gillis.

Choking Sensation

Mrs. H. Day, Dartmouth, N.S. writes: "For over a year I was troubled with smothering spells and shortness of breath, and it was impossible for me to walk, even a short distance, because of the choking sensation which followed. After trying many treatments, in vain, I at last decided to try lauded axe, wearing a wide belt to pass around the tree-trunk, and a pair of lnanman's boots, slowly climbed a big fir. As he ascended by trimmed the trunk clear of limbs. Quite a crowd gathered, among them the trapper, with his rifle on his arm. "I ain't got a 'high-rigger' in the outfit," growled Gillis. "This fellow agreed to trim her, but he says he never chopped the top off one, so he's never will dynamite her."

The explosive, with a detonating cap, was tied around the top of the tree and wires strung to the ground. For some reason the batteries would not act, and Gillis chafed under the delay.

"I kin set her off for ye," said the old trapper. Gillis turned to him. "How?" "Put a piece of paper on the cap so I kin see her and I'll pop it."

"That's a new one on me," laughed Gillis. He sent the man aloft to place a square piece of pasteboard on the cap. The men moved back from the foot of the tree, and Gillis gave the signal that all was clear. The old man sprang briskly to the top of a stump, tipped his big hat to the back of his head, and raised his rifle slowly. For an instant the long barrel wavered slightly, then steadied. The report of the rifle was drowned by a splintering crash. The heavily-branched top lifted, then came hurtling through the air to strike the ground a mass of wreckage. For a moment the big sapr awayed drunkly from the shock, then stood stark and rigid. Deprived of its fronds of green, it appeared a ghastly relic of its former self.

That afternoon, as they waited the arrival of the train, Gillis talked again of his "red-shirt." "White men, every one of 'em," he declared proudly, "and everyone of them with a skinning that's known all over the Coast." "Ye just ought to see my two 'high-riggers,' Hoop-la! McKenzie and 'Blackie' Anderson. 'Blackie' is as black as an Indian, and 'Hoop-la' got his name from standing on the top of a spruce tree, after he cut her off, wavin' his hat and yellin' 'Hoop-la!'"

"I got five Jack McDonaids in the gang. Their names are 'Sly' Jack, 'Fighting' Jack, 'Check-Book' Jack, 'Johnnie-On-The-Spot,' and 'Crazy' Jack. An' if they had all bin named 'Crazy' Jack it wouldn't bin no mistake," he finished with a laugh. The train rumbled to the station and the crowd of workers came pouring from the cars, while a crowd stood waiting to board the train. It was the same every day—men coming and men going.

Gillis uttered a glad cry, "Here they are!" A big, ostentatious man, with broad shoulders and narrow hips, stepped to the platform. His dress was truly colourful and striking—with hat, high boots, a vivid scarlet shirt, with a spear belt of the same bright hue tied at the side, the ends dangling loosely.

"Get out of the way, hunkies, and make room for a logger!" he roared, as he allowed his way through a crowd of scattering foreigners, behind him a line of men clad in the same brilliant attire.

"Hello, Hoop-la! you ornery ol' skater!" bellowed Gillis. The big man turned. "Here he is, fellows!" he shouted.

In a moment Gillis was surrounded by this picturesque crew, howling tumultuous greetings.

"Hello, ol' hosen!" "Hello, you son-of-a-gun!" "How the hell are ye?"

Donald was subjected to crushing handclaps as he was introduced to each and every one of this crowd of husky loggers.

As Donald studied them he did not wonder at Gillis's pride in these men.

MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" OINTMENT

With the exception of Blackie, there was none under six feet in height, and they carried themselves with a loose swing that was almost a swagger. Many of them were well past middle age, some quite grey about the temples. They were all filled with the sparkling health of the great outdoors, their skins the colour of mahogany.

TOOTH EXERCISE

You have read considerable of late about the "daily doses" and other such setting-up exercises. So you know, of course, that the body requires exercise if it is to develop and keep fit.

One of the most important exercises is the vigorous chewing of your food, that a vigorous and necessary as the first step in the development of the body.

But perhaps you have never given thought to the beneficial effects of proper mastication on the teeth and structures thereof.

In the first place, then, there is the stimulating effect on the supporting structures of the teeth giving them proper "tissue tone."

In the growing child, the development of the teeth, which is aided by sufficient masticatory exercise. Former generations ate hard and coarse foods, and suffered little from dental trouble.

Food gave to their teeth and jaws sufficient exercise to promote the most vigorous circulation and a very decided resistance to the gum disease. Agencies through the abundant food supply to the jaws provided ample tissue nourishment for growth and development along with great power of resistance to infection.

Today we are eating great many over-refined and pre-digested foods, which require little or no chewing, and in the use of which, even the mechanical effects from the scrubbing of the tooth surfaces are lacking.

There should be, therefore, an habitual use at each meal, of foods of a hard, fibrous nature, and of such a nature as to require vigorous masticatory effort.

Grippe! Flu! Influenza! Raging Through Canada

Preventive measures are advisable with so much Grippe in the air. Keep the throat and nostrils clear of infection germs by inhaling the balsamic vapor of Catarrhoxone. By this means you feel the healing and soothing from the vapor of the famous "Blue Gum of Australia" all through the air passages of the head and throat.

Catarrhoxone stops a grippy cold, it's splendid for irritable throat, relieves headache, and quickly drives out the germs of Flu, Influenza, Grippe and Bronchitis. Get Catarrhoxone today. Complete outfit, $1.00, and lasts two months. Smaller size 50c at all druggists.

Now we know why the fish don't bite any more. They are finding their way into the Great Lakes to be caught by American fishermen.

Last year these fishermen took 29,700,000 pounds out of Lake Erie, 23,699,884 pounds from Lake Michigan, 15,710,731 pounds from Lake Huron, 19,301,562 pounds from Lake Superior, and 697,821 pounds from Lake Ontario.

Excellent For Croupy Children. — When a child is suffering with croup it is a good plan to use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It reduces the inflammation and loosens the phlegm giving speedy relief to the little sufferer.

It is equally reliable for croup, throat and chest, earache, rheumatic pains, cuts, bruises and sprains. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is regarded by many thousands as an indispensable of the family medicine chest.

A Berlin husband advertises his matrimonial troubles in a local paper: "My plous, faithful wife has departed from me. Will the honorable finder please keep her?"

Notable Rocky Mountain Pass. Jarvis Pass, a densely timbered crossing on the Alberta-British Columbia interprovincial boundary, is remarkable for containing a number of small lakes on its summit, distributed on both sides of the watershed. The water from some of the lakes flows westward to the Pacific, while from the others it runs eastward to the Atlantic.

Santa Clara should be spelled Santa Klawa. The name is Dutch for St. Nicholas.

through the skin like an old-fashioned poultice, "drawing out" tightness and pain, and helping the vapors to break up the congestion.

Avoid Upsetting Stomach

This simple external treatment cannot disturb your digestion as too much "dosing" is so apt to do. This is doubly important when "flu" is around, for your stomach, as well as your respiratory organs, must be kept in good condition in order to keep your body resistance at its highest level.

For this reason, too, mothers prefer Vicks for children. It can be used freely and often, even on the youngest child, with no fear of upsetting a delicate stomach.

To Help Ward Off the Flu

When influenza colds are prevalent, you can often prevent infection by sniffing a little Vicks well up the nostrils every night and morning, or before exposure to crowds.

"SMALL TOWN STUFF"

We shall attempt neither a defense nor a rebuke of so-called "small-town stuff," but we shall be obliged to use the language of the street to describe it. After all, there isn't much difference between those living in villages, towns and smaller cities and those living in great cities. In both places may be found sophistication, education, artistic nature, culture, alertness and enterprise. The people of the small towns are not lacking in the finer qualities and able capabilities. There are just fewer of them. Comparatively, they possess the real value of life as it is, not the artificial and superficial.

There would be many more "rubies," "saps," "aukers" and "gold-brick buyers" in New York City, America's greatest community of people, per square mile, as in the country or smaller city districts, even if the country districts had as many people per square mile. What counts, however, is which class of people enjoy the more wholesome existence, all things considered.

Yes, the "small-town stuff" is sometimes unnecessary, in whatever form it shows up. Too many people know too many other people's business. Too many people make loose and unproved remarks about other people which they couldn't prove in court or anywhere else. Too many people have an all too narrow viewpoint on life, are too intolerant of the views of other, and have too small a scope of vision. These people see the world through a key-hole. They are subways among us. They make possible all of the gossip and most of the misunderstandings in the community.

They are responsible for most of the lawsuits, and they either unwittingly or designedly break up homes and separate families by their slips of speech or inquisitive noisiness. They know so much about the other fellow's business they have little time to attend to their own. They convict and hang men mentally on the street corners. They sneer at law, especially if it seeks to compel them to obey it. They become cynical and blame everybody but themselves and every circumstance but those of their own creation for their failures and unhappiness. They contract and spread that terrible disease known as "knockouts." But they are not all to be found in the small town. The opportunity to hear and see them is simply greater there. No city, however large, is immune from infestation. The difference is that in the small community they are more easily detected and singled out; and because of the comparative degree of population they stand out more vividly in the public eye. In the small community there is no escape from their kind, while in the great city they become lost in the mass. Fortunately, in both places they are in such minority that their ultimate damage is negligible. This is why the phrase, "small-town stuff," has been used humorously and innocently more than it has been used in connection with harmful consequences.

From a glance at any metropolitan daily one must conclude that all "small-town stuff" doesn't happen in small towns.—Kimberley Press.

HOMESTEAD RECORDS BROKEN IN 1925

Breaking all records since the office was opened, 3569 homesteads and 134 soldier grants were filed on in the Dominion Lands Office at Edmonton in 1925, according to figures issued by A. Norquay, Dominion lands agent. The corresponding figures for 1924 are 1354 homesteads and 89 soldier grants. During the month of December, 1925, 400 quarter sections were filed on as compared with 107 for the same month in 1924. Similar increases have been shown in the filings at all other land offices in the province, particularly marked gains having occurred in the entries made at the Grand Prairie and Peace River offices.

HOCKEY NEEDS GREATER SUPPORT

It is understood that the reason for the poor attendance at hockey games this season is that an idea is prevalent among a number of people since the opening of the season that the brand of hockey this season is not up to the former Pass standard. One only has to attend any game to see that real hockey is being played and that the croakers are mixing a lot of real sport. The exhibition at Coleman on Tuesday night was as good as professional, and the game at Bellevue last night was equally as good. Coleman people turned out well on Tuesday and so did Bellevue and Hillcrest last night.

In former years the backing received from the people had a lot to do with the success of Pass teams, and it would be a very fine resolution to make right now that you will again offer that backing.

David Oliver returned Saturday night from Fernie, where for nine weeks he had been a patient, following a critical operation for appendicitis. Mr. Oliver is able to walk down town occasionally, but it will be a good many weeks yet before he will be able to undertake his work. Mrs. Oliver returned with him.

In the assault case arising out of the hockey game at Nanton on December 17th, in which Woodley, one of the Clareholm players, was charged with assault, occasioning grievous bodily harm to Charles Phillips, Woodley has been sent up to a higher court for trial and has been admitted to bail of $1000. Woodley stands suspended from the Foothills Hockey League.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of James Harold Benson, who died at Michel, B.C., on the 10th January, 1928.

"A little flower so pure and fair,
Was by an angel given.
But God, He thought 'twould spoil
The bloom,
So He planted him in heaven.
At eventide the master came
And walked amongst His flowers;
He touched the lilies one by one,
And plucked this one of ours."
Ever remembered by his loving mamma and sister.

Pete McPherson thinks the 1929 fishing season is drawing near for we overheard him on Sunday night singing "Shall we gather at the river?"

THE INSTITUTE OF MANUAL TRAINING AND HOME ART

A senior course in manual training, theory, and practice is offered to boys over 12 years. An entrance fee of two dollars for the course will be charged. Each pupil, however, will be expected to make two articles for the school. The accommodation is very limited and the first twelve boys signing up will be admitted. Class commences Tuesday, January 22nd, at 7.30.

A class in Jesus and clay modelling will be held if sufficient persons desire to take the class. The terms will be: Class fee $2.00; students purchase from the Institute the tools and materials necessary for the work; articles made are the property of the student; at the close of the class each student to finish two articles for exhibition and sale for the benefit of the Institute. If you are interested kindly let Mr. Smith know as soon as possible. This subject may be taken by anyone, ladies or gentlemen, over 15 years.

We acknowledge a splendid six-volume set of the "Life of Napoleon" from Mr. Passmore. Time is getting short, and we are still in need of more books. Mr. Smith will be at the Institute to receive books on Mondays, 7 to 9 p.m.; Tuesdays, 2 to 4 p.m.; and Thursdays, 7 to 9 p.m. Get behind this project and help make it a success.

Our objective is a library owned by the public; controlled by the public; used by the public.

ALBERTA HONEY PRODUCTION INCREASED

Honey production in Alberta during 1928 shows an increase of approximately 12 per cent over the total for the previous year, according to figures just compiled by the provincial department of agriculture from returns supplied by beekeepers throughout the province. Production during the past year has reached approximately 336,000 pounds, as compared with 300,000 pounds for the season of 1927, the reports indicating that colonies in most cases have shown a considerably increased production. In addition to the number of beekeepers who were in the business last year, this year's records show that a steadily increasing number of farmers are developing this profitable sideline to their regular farming operations.

Beekeeping largely centres in the irrigated sections of the southern part of the province, although with the spread of legume crops central and northern sections are represented in the production of honey to an increasing degree and the industry has gained a good foothold in several sections of the Peace River country, where very satisfactory returns have been secured over the past several years.

Better Health In 1929

A year or two after the close of the Great War, and when it was organizing its peace programme for "the improvement of health, the prevention of disease and the mitigation of suffering," the Canadian Red Cross Society launched a monthly magazine for the purpose of arousing public interest in the matter of individual, community, and national health. With the end of 1928 publication of this little periodical ceased, and in announcing the cessation of publication, the Red Cross stated that in the intervening years the subject of health improvement and disease prevention had made such giant strides, and so many organizations and publications were devoting their energies to the subject, while almost every daily and weekly paper regularly printed health articles, that the same necessity did not exist for the Red Cross magazine, consequently the money it cost to produce could be devoted to other purposes.

There has certainly been a gratifying increase in public interest in health matters in the years following the war. With all its awfulness, tragedies and enormous loss, the war was at least a great impetus to the cause of health. Today, Canada is probably the healthiest country in the world, but, even so, there is still vast room for improvement, and that improvement cannot be brought about alone by medical men, governments, hospitals, and health organizations. It rests largely with the individual.

In the past it has been true to a great extent that people only became actively interested in their health when they became sick, notwithstanding the fact that every intelligent person will frankly admit that prevention is better than cure. In all industry in this age special efforts are directed at the elimination of waste and all unnecessary costs in business. Yet loss of time, loss of efficiency, loss in production, loss of earnings by the employee and of profits by the employer, loss occasioned by increased expenses at the very time when income is decreased or stops, is the direct result of sickness. It is the cause of the greatest aggregate loss in our national life.

No better New Year resolution can be made, or observed, by the individual, or the community, than one which finds expression in a determination to safeguard health. Such a resolution finds added force at this particular time when an epidemic of influenza is again sweeping the continent, although, fortunately, of a milder type than those of some years ago. Influenza is very contagious, but, on the other hand, it can be easily combatted through the taking of very simple precautions. If it is not so combatted at its inception, it may quickly result in serious complications such as bronchitis, intestinal trouble, or pneumonia.

All health authorities are alive to the danger; so, too, are the life insurance companies, and all are engaged in extensive publicity campaigns to acquaint people of the danger, and to make known to them the simple precautions they should exercise. Thousands of dollars are being spent in newspaper advertising and other forms of publicity, and it is money well spent, but it will, nevertheless, be largely wasted unless the masses of the people to whom these appeals and advice is directed profit by it.

This new year of 1929 cannot be a happy, prosperous year if sickness enters the homes of Canada, followed by death among the loved ones, or leaving members of this family weakened and liable to contract other forms of disease. Good health is the first essential to happiness. Without it no person, community or nation can be prosperous.

The Canadian people cannot render better service to themselves and their country than by giving immediate and constantly continuing attention to their health. The more they will be laying the only sure foundation to happiness, prosperity, progress.

Coast To Coast Membership Drive To Take Place In April

The weekly and daily newspapers of Canada are warm supporters of the League, it was stated at the regular monthly meeting of the League of Nations Society held in Ottawa, when arrangements were discussed for the membership drive to take place next April. Through out the length and breadth of the Dominion, it was said, editors have shown an interest in the activities of the League of Nations and in the efforts of the Society to promote it in this country. The support of the press will prove a great asset in the annual "Coast to Coast" Membership Drive due to take place on April 16th, 1929, which will be known as "League of Nations Day."

WEAK, LISTLESS GIRLS

Need Such A Tonic As Dr. Williams' Pink Pills To Restore Health

When a girl in her teens becomes pale and listless, especially if at the same time she shows inclination to lose weight, a listlessness and inattention to her work or studies, she needs Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a tonic which directly and specifically corrects the condition from which she is suffering. A chemical analysis of the blood of such a girl would show it to be deficient in just the elements Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can supply. But an analysis of the blood is not needed—the physical signs are a pallor of the cheeks and lips, dark circles under the eyes, easily tired and breathless after slight exertion. Poor appetite, headaches, and sometimes fainting spells follow; often the patient is nervous and is startled at the least noise. In all run-down conditions there is no other tonic will build you up so quickly and so surely as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The statement of Miss Dorothy Lumbin, Bush Island, N.S., will bring home to other weak girls. She says: "I wish to say that I could persuade every person who is in a run-down condition to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. About a year ago I was a weak girl suffering from impoverished blood and a run-down system. I had often read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to take them, and after using six boxes I feel as well and strong as ever. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be my standby in the future if ever my blood needs building up again. I shall always find pleasure in recommending them to others. You can get these pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

Canadian Firm Gets Contract

Will Supply R.C.A.F. With Moth Planes To Be Assembled In Canada

The de Havilland Aircraft of Canada Limited, has received notification from the director of contracts, of the Department of National Defence that their tender for the supply of Moth aircraft for the re-equipment of the Royal Canadian Air Force had been accepted.

An order was placed immediately for thirty-two two-seater Moth light planes for the re-equipment of the Camp Borden station. These machines will replace the old "Lynx Avro" at present in use. They will be used for the training of personnel of the force and for the annual flying courses for probationary flying officers who attend during the summer months. The remaining machines are Moth seaplanes for the equipment of the station at Vancouver.

It is a significant fact that all these machines are to be equipped with the Handley-Page automatic safety ailerons which render an aeroplane as nearly fool-proof as possible.

The Moths will be of the latest metal fuselage type which has been specially evolved for Canadian flying conditions and recently passed all tests at Ottawa with flying colors.

The order includes six spare Gipsy engines and approximates in value almost $200,000.

The Moths will be partly manufactured in England but assembled and tested at the de Havilland Company's plant at Mount Dennis, Ont. Delivery is to be completed by March 31.

Two Hundred Mile Dog Derby

Returns To North Country

Famous Mushers Will Race This Year From The Pas To The

After a lapse of four years, the endurance dog derby, which once thrilled the north country, and, it might even be said, the world, is returning to the Pas. The gruelling non-stop race which brought fame to Northern Manitoba and its hardy mushers will be revived at the frontier town's winter carnival, March 4 to 7. This time, romance will be added to romance. The course will be from The Pas to the famous Flin Flin mine and back, a distance of 200 miles.

Two thousand dollars in cash prizes, besides other valuable awards, and the Walter Goyne-Grant Rice memorial cup, which has an intrinsic value of $1,000, will attract mushers from wherever mushers mush. The winner will have the dog racing championship of the world.

"Shorty" Russell, veteran driver, and the youthful though none the less noted Emil St. Godard, present world's champion, each have a leg on the memorial cup. St. Godard will be one of the leading contestants this year, and it is likely that Russell will also enter. Other noted mushers are bound to make strong bids for more fame at the derby since it has gone back to epic proportions. Seppala, Alaska's pride, has been itching for another endurance race, his friends say, and other mushers, from both the east and the west, have already sent in their applications for entrance forms.

Drivers are already training their teams for the test in March. St. Godard's dogs are in the shape about a summer and a fall of workouts. The team of the French-Canadian musher had been trained for the speedier, 120-mile lap races of the last three years, but Emil claims that the dogs have the endurance for the longer tour. They have been hardened to an auto chase in the warm months and are in good condition for the snow trail.

All the color, the lure, the joys and the sorrows of the land of the northern lights is crowded into the romantic history of dog racing at The Pas.

Standards Of Intelligence

Impossible To Measure Intelligence With A Foot Rule

Dr. Edward E. Free, a noted chemist, tells the American Society of Mechanical Engineers that mechanics are the most intelligent class in the nation. Second come engineers; third, business men. Last of all, and safely out of the category of morons, come actors, preachers, doctors and college professors.

And how does Dr. Free measure intelligence? It is "the ability to reach a reasonably correct conclusion from a set of discoverable facts." But of sets of facts there are all kinds and varieties. Perhaps Dr. Free would tend to over-emphasize the relative importance of chemical facts. Yet if so, one wonders why he ranks college professors so low in his scale. Surely such professors as Dr. Millikan and Dr. Compton should take high rank even on materialistic grounds. A physician like Dr. Banting, the developer of insulin, must be assumed to possess some degree of brain power and logical capacity.

Intelligence is impendable. It is not to be tested with a foot-rule. It has as many standards as there are people to apply them. Because Shakespeare was an actor, he should not be inclined to seat him below the salt at a banquet table of mechanical engineers, just one remove from the half-wits. — New York world.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT ON FEBRUARY 7TH

Ottawa, Feb. 7. Official announcement to this effect was made recently by Premier King, at the conclusion of a meeting of cabinet council.

The Prime Minister stated that no appointments to governmental vacancies were made at the sitting of the cabinet.

Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, who is now in Europe, will return to the capital about the middle of this month. Mr. Bennett sailed for England two weeks before Christmas on a brief holiday prior to the opening of parliament.

Political prognosticators forecast that the session opening next month will be much livelier than the previous one. With occasional rumors in the air of a possible general election next fall, the likelihood is that debates in both the commons and the senate will be somewhat more spirited.

No intimation has been made in official circles, though, on the possibility of an election this year. Two general elections have been held in the Dominion during the past few years, one in 1925 and the last one in 1926; and there are many political observers who lean towards the opinion that no further appeal will be made to the people before 1930.

The budget, it is understood, will be brought down early during the coming session. Presentation of this document, containing as it does the government's fiscal policy with any changes to be made in the tariff, is always eagerly awaited.

Indications are that the coming session of parliament will run well into June. While the legislative program of the government has not been indicated, a number of important matters are definitely scheduled to come before parliament for necessary action.

Recently, Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior, announced that a bill for the return of natural resources to British Columbia would probably be introduced in the course of the approaching session.

Negotiations for the return of natural resources to Alberta are also well advanced, and legislation may possibly be introduced in this case during the session. Premier J. C. Gardner, of Saskatchewan, is due to arrive in the capital early next month to discuss the question of the early return of natural resources to his province.

The whole question of the stimulation of immigration to Canada will likely receive attention.

Monoplanes Reach Hudson Bay Coast

Winnipeg. — Two superb monoplanes of the Northern Aeriel Mines Exploration Company have arrived on the east coast of Hudson Bay near Richmond Gulf, after a flight from Cochrane, Ont., where they left on Dec. 29. The purpose of the flight was to bring supplies to eight prospectors who have been stationed on the east coast of Hudson Bay since early summer.

To Preserve Niagara Falls

Treaty Is Signed Between Canada and United States

Ottawa, Ont. — The construction of remedial works in the Niagara River designed to distribute the water so as to ensure at all times unbroken crestlines on both Canadian and American Falls, is provided for in a treaty between Canada and the United States which was signed at the office of the Prime Minister here.

In addition to providing for the construction of these works, provision is also made that each country may divert an additional 10,000 cubic feet of water per second for power purposes. These diversions will be permitted only "during the winter or non-tourist season, beginning on the first day of October and ending on the 31st day of March of the following year."

The treaty was signed by Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, acting in the capacity of plenipotentiary for His Majesty the King, and by Hon. William Phillips, United States minister to Canada, as plenipotentiary for his government.

Revising Regulations On Incoming Autos

Officials At Ottawa Welcoming Opinions On Existing Restrictions

Ottawa, Ont. — Business men of Western Canada are taking an active interest in the revision of the Customs regulations in regard to the entry from the United States of automobiles.

The Department of National Revenue has been engaged for some time in this re-consideration of regulations with the purpose of removing objectionable restrictions on incoming automobiles, and such has been the interest of business men in the west that the work has been delayed temporarily until all representations have been received.

Many boards of trades have written to the department, and the officials are welcoming every expression of opinion. Every effort will be made to so re-draft the regulations that they will be acceptable.

These sections are presumably more sympathetic to his theories and methods than Canada, whose authorities, according to his own statement, exhibited a disinclination to renew his immigration permit as a visitor in this country.

As on his previous departure from Toronto, he promises to return, make sensational disclosures regarding the small case, and "solve the mystery in spite of all they can do."

Influence was brought to bear by his enemies and opponents in the Small case, he said, before his departure, with the object of preventing him continuing his investigation of the mystery.

The Flu Scourge

Epidemic Most Severe In Nova Scotia and Ontario

Ottawa, Ont. and Nova Scotia. — The two provinces of the Dominion where the ravages of the "flu" are most severe at present, declared Dr. J. A. Amyot, deputy minister of health, but the visitation of the scourge this winter is by no means as serious as those of 1918, 1919, and 1926.

The complications which accompanied the malady in those years have not been present to such an extent in the present epidemic.

ECONOMIC LIFE OF GERMANY IS REPORTED SOUND

Berlin. — Confidence in Germany's economic soundness is the dominant note in Agent-General Seymour Parker Gilbert's report for the fourth reparations anniversary year made public Tuesday.

The report paints a complimentary picture of Germany's entire economic life. The agent-general testifies to Germany's punctilious payments of all sums due on the reparations accounts and describes Germany as placing the product of her science, skill and labor at the disposal of creditor nations in an effort to pay for the war.

With reference to payments for the current annum year the report forecasts that "no question can fairly arise, in the light of practical experience thus far, as to the ability of the reich to provide the full amount of its standard contribution of the plan."

The report states that the payments and transfers during the year amounted to 1,730,000,000 gold marks (about $440,000,000).

The report proceeds to show that the total annuity of the fourth year was almost one and three-quarter billion marks, of which France receives more than one billion (about $250,000,000).

The list of creditors included France, Great Britain, Italy, Belgium, Yugoslavia, United States, Rumania, Japan, Portugal, Greece and Poland.

Prisoners Help Fund For Distressed Miners

Heard Appeal Made By Prince On Christmas Day

London, Eng. — Evidence is fast accumulating of the added impetus given the lord mayor's fund for relief of families of distressed miners by the personal appeal of the Prince of Wales broadcast by radio on Christmas Day. The fund now amounts to nearly $2,000,000 exclusive of the governmental contribution which is to double it.

The governor of a certain prison has sent along $55 "from the prisoners who heard the Prince." Many letters received at the headquarters of the fund, the Mansion House, are addressed to the Prince personally.

Canada's Trade With U.S.

Best Customer Last Year Says Bulletin Issued At Washington

Washington, D.C. — Canada literally purchased a little of everything American manufacturers had to offer during the first ten months of 1928, and may have "bought the Brooklyn Bridge" if Uncle Sam offered such a structure for sale.

This makes the substance of "our world trade," says a bulletin issued by the foreign commerce department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. It stated that the Dominion was the best customer of the United States during the designated period.

Two Opposite Camps

Difference Of Opinions Within the Ranks Of Salvation Army

London, Eng. — For the first time both parties within the Salvation Army have openly admitted that the high council which will meet shortly was composed of two opposite camps.

Officials at the international headquarters and at the headquarters of Evangeline Booth, head of the Army in the United States, freely made pronouncements on the probable line-up of voting when the question of removal of General Bramwell Booth as commander-in-chief, and reorganization of the Army will come up.

An official of the Evangeline Booth group stated that after a careful canvass the group was satisfied more than the necessary three-quarters majority of the council will vote for the removal of General Booth and subsequent reorganization.

At international headquarters those who are supporting General Booth refused to concede a possible victory to the other camp, saying that they are sure of at least seven votes, and that they believed the council would vote confidence in the general to continue his leadership.

They said, however, the method of choosing a successor, and other administrative reforms, might be effected, and that even certain of those who would support the general would favor this.

SCOTT'S GROCERY

BLAIRMORE Phone 222 ALBERTA

Grand Duke Nicholas of Russia passed away over the week end at the age of 72. During the recent Great War he gained renown and was responsible for some of the most brilliant victories recorded by any of the forces engaged.

Kneeling in the Roman Catholic cathedral at Kansas City, Harry J. Schepers, 30, shot and killed himself. The bullet passed through the man's head and pierced a stained glass window, inscribed: "Thy Shine Are Given Thee."
